A CARD.

HAVING been consulted by numerous citizens of Raleigh on the ensuing election for Mayor of the City, and finding that there does exist a great dissatisfaction with regard to the present incumbent, and after being strongly solicited, I have consented and do through this medium announce myself as an independent Republican candidate for the Mayoralty of the City of Raleigh for the year 1870. I will say no more at present, hoping that a favorable opportunity may be presented for me to address my fellow citizens on this subject.

COMMON SCHOOLS.

"A new year has dawned upon us, and persons are arranging their plans and scanning their resources to meet the exigencies likely to arise to them during the year.—What are the objects to be accomplished, and what are the means for accomplishing them? What are the plans, and what are the resources for carrying them into execution? Crops are to be made, bread and meat and clothing must be provided for wife and family; and, above all, money must be procured, some how, to pay the taxes, the heaviest, by seven or eight hundred per cent. that were ever assessed before.

All these are matters requiring present thought and attention. Connected with them, or rather, in addition to them, are other subjects, requiring, also, immediate thought and care, and at the same time connecting themselves with the future, and having a bearing not only on individuals, but upon the State and the whole country; upon society and its welfare; upon Religion, and morality, in the days to come.—Prominent in this class of cares and duties, pressing upon the thoughts and claiming the attention of every good citizen, and especially those having sons and daughters growing up around them, is the subject of education. This is a matter of vital importance to the future good of the State as well as of individuals, and every thoughtful and enlightened person will look upon and acknowledge it as such.

"There is a time to sow, and a time to reap," and will it not do for the husbandman to wait for the midsummer to commit his seeds to the earth, and begin the cultivation of the crop; for, if he does, he not only fails to reap in harvest, but allows his fields to be overrun with brambles and noxious weeds. The same idea holds in regard to the cultivation of the mind and heart. If the youth of the land be neglected, and allowed to grow up without intellectual culture, we shall not only miss the grand results which educated genius might produce in the great march of human progress, invention and discovery—the development of material and intellectual wealth, which forms the true basis of greatness and power in a State, as well as in individuals, but we shall be providing for a harvest of crime, confusion, bigotry and sensuality, tending to misery and degradation and ruin.

What is to be done? The State has assumed the educational guardianship of her children, at least, so far as the rudiments of education are concerned. The people are awaiting the fulfilment of her assumed obligations in this respect. Taxes have been levied and collected for the purpose of putting the Common School system in operation; promise after promise has been given that the schools would soon be opened, and yet it is not done; in the meantime the girls and boys are growing up, many of them in total ignorance of the art even of reading and writing, and the time for them will soon have passed for the acquisition of any education at all.

The money of the State, gathered in taxation from the people, has been extravagantly squandered by an irresponsible legislature and ignorant or dishonest public officials; and now, almost at the beginning of a new financial year, the public treasury is empty, and the money intended for schools, inadequate as the sum was, must, necessarily be diverted to other uses.—Already has the Treasurer been obliged to borrow from this fund to meet the current expenses of the State Government.

The Sheriffs have brought in the bulk of the "tithings," and yet the Treasury is empty. The Legislature will continue to sit, if it takes the last dime, from the school fund and flood every other source. Each member receives every day he sits in the capitol, money enough to pay for the tuition of one child in his county seven months. But what do they care!

In addition to the deficiency in the means of meeting the other current State expenses, the Asylums are totally unprovided for. Sixty thousand dollars were voted to the Insane Asylum, and some forty thousand to the Deaf and Dumb, and not a dollar in the Treasury to meet the appropriations! In fact, we believe the two institutions are now subsisting on money borrowed from the Literary fund.

Under all these circumstances, we cannot see any prospect of the Common Schools opening at all. To reduce the system to good and efficient working order, requires wisdom, co-operation and much more money than has been appropriated for that purpose. The present Superintendent of Public Instruction is totally unfit for the position. He has neither the necessary knowledge of the localities or people of the State; the wisdom and administrative ability for his arduous and complex duties, nor can he command the respect and co-operation of the people of the State, necessary to success.

Under all these circumstances, and with the plentiful lack of some of all the money that has been squandered and stolen from the State, we cannot see any prospect for an efficient Common School system, soon.

The people must take this matter in their own hands, and kick incompetent men out of office, or they will never have any schools.

THE COLORED CELEBRATION.

The anniversary of the emancipation proclamation was observed in this city on Saturday, by a portion of the colored people, but we observed that there was a good deal of indifference manifested by many of them in regard to the matter, very different from what it has been heretofore. This is not to be wondered at, when it is understood that the whole affair was warped and twisted into a political instead of a civic celebration.

The colored people are beginning to learn that marching in processions and listening to the harangues of demagogues, who avail themselves of such occasions to abuse officers, and keep up strife, don't feed and clothe them, nor pay rent, nor give them "forty acres and a mule."

We noticed no diminution in the number of colored people on the streets Saturday; many of them continuing to pursue their avocations as usual. Many of the better class of them refused to join in the procession at the starting point.

As the procession passed near our office, it was composed of two carriages escorted by a drum and fife—a few members of the colored fire company and a dozen boys.—In one of the carriages was "Col." Pike and Rev. Hood, but this carriage "dodged" the procession at the Capitol Square, and went to the Fair grounds "in a gang by itself."

We have no disposition to ridicule the colored people in their desire to celebrate the anniversary of their emancipation; they have a right to rejoice on the occasion, and it is natural they should do so; but the time has passed for such occasions to be used for abusing native citizens, and to create and foster ill feeling toward those on whom alone they can rely for the friendly aid and assistance they need in getting along in life.

We were glad to see that so many colored people refused to sanction the unwarrantable course of a few would-be-leaders, of their own color, and the white demagogues who put them up to their course; by keeping away and having nothing to do with the affair. The colored people have been misled nearly as long as it can be done.

We did not learn anything in regard to the proceedings at the Fair, or who made speeches and who didn't; only, we believe Dr. Grissom didn't.

The following taken from the Memphis Avalanche is a proper and just tribute to the memory of a departed rascal. While the piece in question can lay no claim to any special excellence as a literary composition, yet its exceeding truthfulness should recommend it to all:

A bad man has gone to his long account. A villain has shuffled off this mortal coil.—A despot has kicked the bucket. There was great rejoicing in Pandemonium yesterday. Since that eventful day when Adam and Eve manufactured clothes out of fig leaves, there has been many large gatherings in hell and on earth. But the cavalcade that turned out in the infernal regions to greet E. M. Stanton, who died yesterday, was, in all probability, the largest that ever paid tribute to a congenial spirit. Stevens had been awarded the premium for being the biggest sinner in all purgatory, and he is no doubt now jealous of Stanton who he knows will put in for the medal, with a good prospect of winning it. That mawkish sentimentality which would the mantle of oblivion over the misdeeds of dead rascals, cannot be observed in chronicling the death of E. M. Stanton. The most exquisite tortures served Stanton enjoyment. The tyranny of Tiberius was forgotten in his enormities. He reveled for several years in tormenting all over whom he had power; but when he offended heaven and earth by hanging an innocent woman like a dog, God visited him with His righteous anger, and since the consummation of this atrocious deed Stanton's physical system commenced decaying and breaking up, and without a single tie on earth, destitute of all belief in the Christian religion, he died, and a little soul steeped in sin went to the devil. In nature he was revengeful and malignant, and so stubborn in opinion that he rarely changed his views or relinquished a purpose. He was as remorseless and cruel in disposition as a Camanche Indian, and joyously and without a shudder would have turned the Southern people over to massacre, and their homes to desolation. He was serene, not from philosophy, but from temperament and torpor. He belonged [illegible] to the animals known as coldbloods. No impulses ever stirred the feeble and sluggish currents of his moral or mental nature. To call him a brute would be a libel upon the dog. Of humanity he was destitute. He was servile; he was cowardly. The manner of his death shows the finger of retribution. He hungered for blood, for a position that would enable him to bedevil a defenceless people.—A President as mean and malignant as himself appointed him United States Supreme Court Judge. This power caused the fiend to burst into wild, demoniac laughs. But that God who would not permit the builders to occupy the impious tower on the plains of Shinar, smote the unctious scoundrel so that he died. Nearly all the conspirators against the life, of Mrs. Surratt have been blotted from the world they disgraced. Conover was sent to the penitentiary, and Andrew Johnson was consigned to private life. Holt still lives, but still prays for death. Stanton has gone, and Holt will soon follow, for not more certainly is he burned who puts his hand in the flames, than is he punished who commits a moral wrong. The wicked man's sins will find him out." It is not an agreeable duty to inscribe the true character of an infamous public man on his tomb; but it is an imperative duty. Speak nothing but the truth of the dead. Stanton the infamous is drinking molten iron, trading in pyrotechnics, and broiling in a heated furnace, and the people rejoice.

THE ATTORNEY GENERALSHIP.—It is stated from Washington that Mr. Hoar, in a private letter, expresses his intention to resign his position after the recess, in order to relieve the President from the embarrassment of having a person in his Cabinet who is obnoxious to Congress. The President does not feel inclined to urge his resignation, but will undoubtedly accept it.

The Postmaster General has entered into a contract with Williams & Guion for the carrying of the European mail. The steamers of the new mail line leave Wednesdays of every week, and make the trip to Liverpool in about eleven days. This is going decidedly backward in postal affairs.

PHYSICIANS OUTLAWED.

LEXINGTON, N. C., Dec. 8th 1869.

MR. EDITOR:—I am not a public man, nor in any respect a politician, but simply an humble follower of Æsculapius, and the whole of my life with my best talents and energies have been devoted entirely to the profession of my choice. From my standpoint, I have a few remarks to make relative to that class of oppressed, and downtrodden suffering humanity—the Physicians of North Carolina. As you are well aware the more honorable (?) class of those indebted to us for medical services rendered in rain, in snow, in sleet, by day, by night, as physicians, as surgeons, and even as accoucheurs, have gone into Bankruptcy and have settled with us, by serving on us a notice of Bankruptcy, many of said honorable men retaining more gold, and greenbacks than would buy out several of the Doctors of this county. Of them I've nothing further to remark!! But there is a larger class still who have taken the benefit of the Homestead law, and the consequence is the Doctors are thrown entirely upon the charities of the people. I thank God Sir, that there are many honest, [illegible] men still left in North Carolina who deem it just and right to pay their physician!! If it were not so the whole of us, with our wives, and children would ere this have been snugly settled under the sod, and the inscription upon our headboards would be, sacred to the memory of—

DR. BLANK AND FAMILY!

Died of Inanition, A. D., 1869.

And even as it is there is scarcely life enough left in us to keep soul and body together, and though we keep kicking, our kicks are irregularly spasmodic. The people of the State are in a great measure to blame for this state of things, for if they had a proper appreciation of us, and a due sense of what is right, and just, they would with one voice cry out against the oppression, and the matter would be quickly remedied, because our Legislators cannot resist the "vox populi," but there is a universal disposition to require more of us, and postpone paying us longer than any other class of men. In health they laugh us to scorn and deride us, but when "grim death threatens to overthrow their earthly" tenements of clay, then they cannot dispense with our services, then they are not willing to rely upon koukoo, wine of tar, vinegar bitters and other such miserable quacks nostrums. Yes sir, the general motto is

"This is the way physicians mend or end us,
Secundem artem, but although we sneer,
In health—when sick we will them to attend us,
Without the least propensity to sneer."

Do you not suppose many a man will be surprised when he wakes in another world by such questions as the following? Ques. Were you in the habit of paying your doctor before you left North Carolina? Ans. No, the Law did not require it, therefore I did not pay the Doctor before I left, or make any provision for it to be done. Sequel. Then Sir, yours is a hopeless case, for you have not only violated the "golden rule" but the just law which says "owe no man anything." The more enlightened and refined a community becomes, the more highly she appreciates, and the better she pays her physician. Now, Sir, this is true, absolutely and infallibly true; then the question suggests itself, what is the moral and intellectual status of the people of North Carolina?

But say you—are not the physicians themselves to blame for this state of things? In part they are, because they are not as true to each other as they should be, and because they do not speak out boldly like men, and assert their rights, and standing firmly to each other, force the people, and the General Assembly to acknowledge that they are upon a par at least with mechanics and laborers. However, if we adopt such a course as this, then those men who would not sell a bushel of corn, a pound of bacon, a yard of calico, or do a day's work for a poor man without the money, cry out "persecution," speak of indignation meetings, and hypocritically repeat the couplet "mans inhumanity to man, makes countless millions mourn." Oh my country I expect it does when their corn, bacon, calico and work are not in the question!

As a body, are we not as intelligent as the majority of mankind. Have we not spent our time, money, and talents in the acquirement of our professions, and the pursuit of professional duties? Are we not honest, law abiding and faithful in administering to the "ills which flesh is heir to?" Is not our lot at best a hard one? Why then are we virtually ignored by the people, and lawmakers of the land? Are we not self sacrificing? Are we not charitable? Aye, if self-sacrifice and deeds of charity alone were sufficient to translate our souls to Heaven, then would we leave this world with greater speed than Crockett rode when astraddle a streak of greased lightning; 'tis true we often make a virtue of necessity in our charities; but that is chiefly owing to the fact that so many are too penurious to be anything else but objects of charity.

But casting all jesting aside, the physicians of the State are paralyzed, their energies blunted, their ambition to excel almost gone, and they are at a loss to know what to do, because they know that it is utter folly to follow a calling which is not protected by the laws of the land. Many of them have removed to other fields of labor, many gone into more lucrative callings, and those of us who remain true to the profession we love above all others, are disheartened and know not what to do.—'Tis a crying, and a burning shame upon the General Assembly of the State that they will not do something to secure us our rights as good citizens! They know the evil that exists,—they know that our business is "ex necessitate rei," a credit business,—they know that we are to all intents and purposes out-lawed, and they know that they have it in their power to correct the evil if they will. No law should be observed which do not embody within themselves justice, and equity, and all we ask is justice and equity, and we are fully persuaded that the framers of the Constitution never intended so to oppress us. Now then, we appeal to the Legislature of North Carolina! Many of you are our friends and we respect and esteem you highly. We are true sons of the State, we have devoted our all to her, and we appeal to you as her guardians, to extend the same protection to us that you do to other men,—make us at least equal with mechanics and laborers. However, if we adopt such a course as this, then those men who would not sell a bushel of corn, a pound of bacon, a yard of calico, or do a day's work for a poor man without the money, cry out "persecution," speak of indignation meetings, and hypocritically repeat the couplet "mans inhumanity to man, makes countless millions mourn." For the Sentinel.

SMITHFIELD, Dec. 29, 1869.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:

I am considered a colored person at home, yet two hours travel on a train, among strangers, makes me a white man in public estimation. I never was a slave, I am a native of this State, I own some property in it, and hope to add more to what I now possess. Like most men, I love the land where I was born—and I think I feel some of that selfish interest in public affairs that is usually experienced by men that own property. I wish to see peace, and just prosperity in all the land, I want to enjoy both myself,—and would be glad if every body else could share in them. Just now in the beginning of a new year, I want to offer a little friendly advice concerning the best way of securing to all people these two great blessings. I give this advice to the white people because more depends on the white than on the colored. The whites have got the most numbers, the most sense and the most money. Yes, white men of North Carolina, you can have the blacks your willing instruments in building up a peaceful and prosperous State, if you will only have it so.

I am not talking to offend you, my object is to do good; let me then tell you kindly but candidly, how you can make the most that can be made out of the black man, for you and for him. The blacks are going to be led a long time, "perhaps always" by white people. Now some white people are good and some are bad; if the bad get control of the blacks, the power to do mischief, of the blacks, will be very great. If the good secure an influence over the blacks, the power of the good will be largely reinforced. The better class of the whites, have got it in their power to mainly control the blacks. All that class has to do to get this influence is to allow the blacks to consider that class their friends.

Don't misunderstand me. I do not mean that the blacks want you to put them on a social footing with you; that idea has entered the heads of very few, if any, of the colored people. I say you can control the blacks if you will allow them to consider you their friends. But I will tell you who the blacks cannot count as the friends of the black man, or hardly as the friends of the white man.

The blacks set great store, now, by education; they think their ignorance is bad on them, and bad on the State that they are citizens of, and bad too, particularly, on the better classes of whites. When it is as plainly to the interest of all that they should be educated, the black man thinks, that those who ridicule and discourage his humble efforts to learn and inform himself and his children must be the bitter enemies of his race. His friends, he thinks, would take the opposite course. When a bad white man does some great wrong to a black, the negroes, I must do them justice, are not apt to forget that there are many good white people, and fall to abusing the whole white race. And when some mean black commits an outrage on a white, if the negroes hear white men abuse the whole negro race without exception, they conclude, at once, that those white men would not act so unreasonably if they were not the enemies of the whole black race.—The negro would be found to vote for Southern men, for men of property and intelligence, just at the same time the negro feels that his right to vote is his greatest security against oppression, and he is more apt to vote for a mean white man who pledges himself to defend the suffrage, than for the best white citizen in the State, who refuses to promise that he will oppose the taking away of a right so dear to the black man. I am sorry the negro is obliged to vote for those who, outside of this consideration, are not his choice. But in voting as he does he follows the promptings of that human nature, which would make all the men that God ever created, act, in like circumstances, just as he acts, in casting a seeming unworthy vote. You tell us this question of suffrage is settled and we ought not to be uneasy about it. But let me be candid; we ask you to promise that if you get into power you will not use that power to unsettle it. If you refuse to give us this assurance, we are obliged to conclude that you have an unspoken intention to unsettle it, if it is ever in your power to do so. You complain of the Union League, you can dissolve all the Leagues, in double quick time, if you want to do so, if the platform of the Conservative party declare for impartial suffrage and the leading newspapers of the party support impartial suffrage, the Leagues would all soon die a natural death. We don't object to seeing the Leagues die. We tell you now to put them to death, and you in your assemblages and with ours will celebrate their death with songs of triumph.

I might say more, but perhaps I have said enough. I am not counted a good party man, I am one of the few colored men who have cast votes for Conservatives. Consider well these things and others that you will think of, and decide if it is not for the good of the State, that you take control of the black man, instead of leaving him to be used by political gamblers and adventurers.

Respectfully,

J. B. ALFORD.

WHAT THE SOLDIERS ARE THINKING.

General Morgan, of Ohio, one of the most gallant soldiers of the war, is driven to see, bring in Congress, what other soldiers will sooner or later see when the plots develop which are there hatching. He sees that the Republican leaders, before the war, during the war, and now, are consciously striving to destroy our democratic republic and convert its ruins into a centralized imperialism. And this is the language in which a sturdy, honest, and plain-spoken fighting Union man declares his convictions:

From the Globe, December 20.

MR. SPEAKER: There are those, and they are numbered by thousands, who at the the outbreak of the war which closed five years ago believed that it was the deliberate purpose of the leaders of the so called Republican party to force this country into war for the express purpose of subverting its free institutions. I was one of those who were reluctant so to believe. I was willing to contribute, to the best of my humble ability, in suppressing the armed opposition to the government. But, sir, with my hand upon my heart, in the presence of the great God who rules all nations and now watches over ours, I here declare that I am convinced that the single object of these leaders of the Republican party was the subversion of our free institutions and the desire of war to that end. The charge that I here make is a bold one—a charge that should not be lightly made—a charge which, when made on this floor, should be sustained by proof. What are the proofs?

I feel bound in candor to say, sir, that in the charges I have brought and am about to urge against those who have usurped leadership over what is called the Republican party I do not include the thousands of honest and patriotic men who have mistakenly acted with that organization.

But I charge that there is a conspiracy in our country to break down our free institutions and adopt a government similar to that of Great Britain. I charge this; that there is a purpose to rob the Executive of his constitutional powers. I charge this; that there is a conspiracy to rob the Supreme Court of the United States of its rightful authority, and to confer upon this House and the Senate judicial powers; thus concentrating in Congress executive, legislative, and judicial powers. I charge this: that the action of this Congress is revolutionary; I charge this: that it sets at defiance the Constitution of the United States as the Long Parliament set at defiance the English Constitution, and as the Assembly of France usurped all the powers of government.

OUR FOREIGN POSTAGE SERVICE.—Postmaster General Creswell has gone to New York to confer with certain steamship owners regarding our ocean postage difficulties. The Philadelphia Press says:

The foreign steamships sail that from that port declare that they will no longer take the mails at the usual rates—that is as postage. The owners say that since the rate of ocean postage has been reduced their compensation will not be sufficient to pay for their trouble. The same steamships gathered rich harvests while ocean postage was twenty-four and twelve cents; they were paid from fifty to one hundred times as much by the pound as they received for any other freight. It happens that just now there are none but foreign steamships sailing out of the United States. Just at this moment the foreign steamships threaten to throw down the mails; they imagine they control the situation, and they can force the government to their own terms. The law is ample to enable to Postmaster General to cause the mails to be carried to advantage of the service, and it is not likely he will submit to extortion. It is admitted that the course of these foreigners will stimulate Congress to make discriminations in favor of American ocean mail service."

MCFARLAND'S DEFENSE.—We noticed recently the fact that a lady in Cleveland, Ohio, had started a subscription of one cent each, to be obtained from married ladies, as a fund for Mr. McFarland, now confined in jail in New York, to defend himself from the charge of the murder of A. D. Richardson. The idea that suggested this was a good one. It involves from the right quarter the defense of the martial relations which Richardson violated and which cost him his life. The Cleveland subscription is not so much a pecuniary aid to McFarland as it is in the moral support to be gained by such a material assistance. When the wives and mothers of the country thus contribute to the professional defence of McFarland, it has a fact and meaning of the greatest significance. We may here mention the fact that has lately come under our observation, that a prominent merchant of this city has recently started a subscription for the benefit of McFarland, and has, up to this time, raised five hundred dollars. He has duly forwarded it, and is happy to be the instrumentality by which he can vindicate the dignity of the marital vows against unprincipled violators. If gentlemen are permitted to make marriage engagements with other men's wives, who is safe from the destroyer of domestic happiness?

A CONVICT FALLS HEIR TO $32,000.—Mr. Allen Ross, the Agent and warden of the prison, received a will bequeathing property to the amount of $32,000 to a convict named William R. Haight, sentenced from Cattaraugus County. The property consists of real estate located in the City of New York. He was apprised of his mother's death a few days since, and she, in her will, gave him all her property. Like a good many other wild boys, William was allured by the attractions of a travelling circus, followed it to the above county, where he was arrested for grand larceny, and sentenced to Auburn prison for two years and six months. He has served six months only, and will no doubt rest uneasy for the coming two years, in view of the anticipated enjoyment of the sudden and unexpected amount of property falling to him.—Auburn (N. Y.) Democrat.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no mud, or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo.
It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.
The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs no word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.
The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."
Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.
Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coast wise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

IS A HOME COMPANY.

Owned and conducted by Southern men. It employs its funds at home for the benefit of Southern enterprises.
IT IS THE PIONEER COMPANY OF THE SOUTH, in all the new and liberal features of Life Insurance, presenting advantages not offered by any other Company, note the following points.
1st. Low Rates of Insurance, with a credit of one third, the Premium as a perpetual Loan.
2d. THIRTY DAYS GRACE for the payment of all premiums, and the Policy held good for that length of time.
3rd. Policies Non-forfeiting after the first payment.
4th. Policies indisputable from any cause save fraud.
5th. No restrictions of Residence, Travel or occupation.
6th. It is a Mutual Insurance Company, ninety four per cent of the Profits are divided among the insured, on the contribution plan, and as money commands higher rates of Interest in the South than North or East, the probability is almost certain that the dividends will exceed those of Northern Companies, this reducing the premiums to their lowest actual cost.
7th, Under the Charter of this Company, Policies of Insurance are not subject to the debts of the Insured. Policies in favor of a wife or children are payable to them or their guardians direct.
8th. This company issues policies guaranteeing six per cent. compound interest in addition to the insurance of the amount insured. Parties about to insure would do well to examine the tables and plans of this company before insuring in any other company. Kittrells Springs Female College, tenth session, opens on the third Wednesday of January. This College is located at the celebrated mineral Springs, formerly a place of great resort as a watering place.—See the card of Rev. Mr. Riddick, Principal.

"A SHOW AS IS A SHOW."—The fall woman, the wild woman and the pretty woman, will hold a levee at Tucker Hall this afternoon and evening, at the moderate price of 35 cents admission. We intend to go and see the pretty woman particularly, and the wild woman and the high woman incidentally.

DENIES THE CHARGE.—Stewart Ellison requests us to say he has never used the language attributed to him in regard to the native white citizens being asked to co-operate in the ceremonies of the colored celebration on Saturday, and we give him the benefit of his disclaimer. We received the information from persons of his own color, and announced the name of Handy Lockhart for Commissioner at their request.—We don't care a dried apple for the election of either; just as soon Lockhart was elected as Ellison, and Ellison as Handy.

TELEGRAPHIC.—The telegraph brought us nothing of importance on Saturday night. New year ceremonies were observed generally in the large city.

At Washington the President announced his willingness "to receive," which some say he is willing to do on almost any day.

The colored people in Richmond celebrated the anniversary of the Proclamation, and Gov. Walker and Gen. Imboden made them speeches.

No report of markets, owing to nothing doing on New Year's.

Reports have reached England that the Cuban rebellion is declining.

And that is about the sum and substance of the telegraphic dispatches on Saturday night.

THE ELECTION TO DAY.—This grand event takes place to-day. We haven't any bets on the result, and therfore feel no great concern on the subject. Property holders in the city are interested and we think they ought to manifest their concern by coming to the polls and voting for those they think best qualified. That's the way we intend to do.

There was a Republican meeting at the Court House on Saturday night, to ring in the faithful to the sticking point; many speeches were made and considerable bad breath expended. The crowd was a comparatively small one.

We are glad to welcome back to our table our old friend the Henderson Index.

MARRIED.—Under this head, last week, we announced the tying together of J. L. Stone and Miss Geneva A. Beavers, of this county, as happening on the 23rd of Dec., of the year 1869, deceased, whereas, we were nearly two months behind the time, the said couple having been united on the 30th Oct., last, privately. Everything had gone on just as before with the parties, each doing his own sleeping, until last week when they made the matter known. The secret was very well kept considering there were five persons in possession of it, and three of them ladies.

We now renew the notice with the necessary corrections:

MARRIED.—At the residence of the brides father in Wake county on the 30th of Oct., last, by W. M. Sorrel, Esq., Mr. JOSHUA L. STONE to Miss GENEVA A. BEAVERS, daughter of Fendal Beavers, Esq.

PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., through the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent; for the State of N. C., and south of the James. Two policies upon the life of J. A. Moore, of Raleigh, No. 17,296, $10,000; No. 19,416, $5,000. This is but another illustration added to the many already made known to the public, of what this old and reliable Company is doing in our State.

The following note is appended by permission:

MR. CROW:—Please accept my thanks for your untiring energy and perseverance in procuring for myself and child, the amount due us, from your Company, also my appreciation of your promptness and kindness in our behalf.

Very Respectfully,
MRS. JAMES A. MOORE.

RATHER STRANGE.

It is known that Stokes of the "Asheville News," has for some time been firing rather hot shot at the iniquitous and fraudulents transaction of the "ring" who are pretending to build the Western Division of the W. N. C. Railroad.

It is not generally known (nevertheless it is equally true), that honest exposures of corruption and fraud is not a very profitable trade about this time and that friend Stokes not being in the "ring" is hard pressed for means and has advertised the News and Farmer for sale, having dispaired of keeping the paper up against the combined influence of party, greenbacks, stealage, &c.

Now comes the strange part. A few days ago there appeared a man in our quiet midst calling himself Womble who represented that he had lived in Wilmington, Fernandina, Florida, edited a paper in Thomasville, Ga., and been a railroad conductor and a great many other things. He hurriedly called on Stokes and said he had come to comply with his terms and wanted to take possession of the office at once. Now Stokes did not see the necessity of such hot haste and refused to comply with his (Womble's) request at the very moment and intimated that he (Womble) was in the interest of the "ring." Womble stoutly denied this and feigned anger.

By some means it leaked out that the ex-editor-railroad conductor, &c., had no money and that he paid his stage fair, hotel bills and ——, &c., by one G. M. Roberts, so-called treasurer of the Western Division of the W. N. C. R. R, and his orders were honored.

Well, I suppose that Womble's or somebody else's money will buy the News and Farmer, and I think the ring will pay dearly to silence an honest man who has tried to do his duty. But does it calculate to silence the honest indignation of an honest mountain people or to freeze the ink in the pen of a scribbler who cannot be bought to the service of iniquity and corruption. ARGUS.

Asheville, N. C. Dec. 18th, 1869.

A Wonderful Southern Discovery.—In the South where Liver complaint and billious diseases prevail to so great an extent, there has long been felt a need of a medicine that would act specifically and promptly on the Liver, restoring it to its normal functions, and at the same time be safe from after effects, and yet so simple that it might be used by any one. It is claimed that DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS supplies this want. They act directly on the Liver; their constant use will not injure in the slightest degree the most delicate constitution. Females at any period may use them with great benefit, and realize great relief from the distressing nausea which they experience at certain times. These pills are not recommended as a universal cure all, but simply for diseased Liver, and those maladies which follow a derangement of that important organ, such as Dyspepsia, Headache, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Costiveness, Piles, Jaundice, Sour Stomach, Ladies Heartburn, Chills and Fever, Foul Breath, Restlessness at night, and Flatulency. These invaluable pills may be found in every Drug Store of any note in the South and West.

Let Common Sense Decide.

What is the rational mode of procedure in cases of general debility and nervous prostration? Does not reason tell us that judicious stimulation is required? To resort to violent purgation in such a case is as absurd as it would be to bleed a starving man. Yet it is done every day. Yes, this stupid and unphilosophical practice is continued in the teeth of the great fact that physical weakness, with all the nervous disturbances that accompany it, is more certainly and rapidly relieved by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters than by any other medicine at present known. It is true that general debility is often attended with torpidity or irregularity of the bowels and that this symptom must not be overlooked. But while the discharge of the waste matter of the system is expedited or regulated, its vigor must be recruited. The Bitters do both. They combine aperient and antibilious properties, with extraordinary tonic power. Even while removing obstructions from the bowels, they tone and invigorate those organs. Through the stomach, upon which the great vegetable specific acts directly, it gives a healthy and permanent impetus to every enfeebled function. Digestion is facilitated, the faltering circulation regulated, the blood reinforced with a new accession of the sanitary principle, the nerves braced, and all the dormant powers of the system roused into healthy action; not spasmodically, as would be the case if a mere stimulant were administered, but for a continuance.—It is in this way that such extraordinary changes are wrought in the condition of the feeble, emaciated and nervous invalids by the use of this wonderful corrective, alterative and tonic. Let common sense decide between such a preparation and a prostrating cathartic supplemented by a poisonous astringent like strychnine or quina.

Throat Affections and Hoarseness.—All suffering from Irritation of the Throat and Hoarseness will be agreeably surprised at the almost immediate relief afforded by the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches" The demulcient ingredients allay pulmonary irritation; and, after public speaking or singing, when the throat is wearied and weakened by too much exercise, their use will give renewed strength to the vocal organs.

JUST OUT.—Cherry Pectoral Troches, superior to all others, for Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats, Bronchitis and Horseness. None so pleasant, none cure so quick.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe has come to the defence of her reputation at last. Her reply to the critics who have assailed her, and her further tearing to pieces of the character of Lord Byron, will appear in book-form, that being, the mode by which the largest sum of money can be realized from the speculation. She promises to prove every assertion made against Byron, and more too, and to utterly confound the newspaper commentators, whose diatribes, she says, she has never taken the trouble to read.

Mt. Herman Lodge, No. 247, F. A. M. At a regular communication of this Lodge, held in its Hall, December 27th, A. D., 1869—A. L. 5869.—The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Allwise Creator to remove from our midst our beloved and much respected Brother, MILTON ISLEY, who died, at his residence, on the 18th day of December, 1869

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Isley, Masonry has lost one of its noblest members, and the community at large one of its most worthy and upright citizens.

Resolved, That while we bow with submission to the afflicting hand of Providence, we sincerely lament the loss of our esteemed Brother, and most deeply sympathize with his afflicted and bereaved family, and remind them that the evergreen is but plucked from earth to be transplanted in a clime whose breeze is not laden with affliction and death.

Resolved, That while our Brother was living, we held him in high esteem, and being now no more, we honor and revere his memory.

Resolved, That the death of our beloved Brother is another solemn warning, calling upon us while living and in health, to prepare for that change which must come to us all.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the records of this Lodge, and a copy of them duly signed by the Secretary, sent to the family of the deceased, and to the Raleigh SENTINEL for publication.

Resolved, That the members of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Representatives of the Press of Richmond and Petersburg, have arrived, at the invitation of the Washington journalists. The welcoming speech, at 9 o'clock this morning, was made by Col. Forney and responded to on behalf of the Virginia Press by Mr. Gilliam, of the Richmond Whig.

The President's reception was not so numerously attended as on many previous occasions. The reception began at half past 10 o'clock, attended by foreign legations in full Court costumes, Cabinet Officers, Judges of Supreme Court, officers of the army and navy in full uniform, local organizations, Senators and Representatives here and the public generally. The Marine Band was present in full uniform discoursing excellent music throughout the reception.

A writer has recently traced the strange phrase "Over the left" to the records of the Hartford county courts, in the colony of Connecticut:

"At a county court held at Hartford, September 4, 1705:

Whereas James Steed did commence an action against Bevell Waters (both of Hartford) in this court, upon bearing and tryall, whereof the court gave judgment against the said Waters (as in justice they think they ought,) upon the declaring the said judgment the said Waters did review to the court in March next, that being granted and entered, the said Waters, as he departed from the table, he said, 'God bless you, over the left shoulder.' The court ordered a record to be made thereof forthwith."

A true copie—Test:

"CALEB STANLEY, Clerk."

At the next court Waters was tried for contempt for saying the words recited, "so cursing the court," and on verdict fined £5. He asked a review of the court following, which was granted, and pending trial the court asked counsel of the Rev. Messrs. Woodbridge and Buckingham, the ministers of the Hartford churches, as to the "common acceptation" of the offensive phrase. Their reply constitutes a part of the record, and is as follows:

"We are of opinion that those words, said on the other side to be spoken by Bevell Waters, include (1) prophaneness, by using the name of God, that is holy, with such ill words whereto it was joyned; (2) that they carry great contempt in them arising to the degree of an imprecation or curse, the words of a curse the most contemptible that can ordinarily be used."

T. WOODBRIDGE,
March 7, 1705 6. T. Buckingham.

The former judgment was affirmed on review.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra." Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

WILL BE SOLD TO THE HIGHEST BIDder, on the 15th day of January next, at the Court House door in the Town of Louisburg, the valuable property known as the "Pierce Mills" with EIGHTY FOUR acres of land attached. This property is located in the Eastern part of Franklin county, near the "Perrin Gold Mines" on "Sandy Creek"—A NEVER FAILING STREAM. The Mills are in excellent condition and has an extensive and profitable patronage. The situation is an excellent one for a Cotton Gin and a store and with these added the property would prove a fortune to any energetic man in a few years. The Gin and store Houses could be put up at very little cost, as there is an excellent Saw Mill attached to the other Mills with an abundance of timber on the land, belonging to the property. For further particulars apply to Mr. R. M. Pierce, who resides at the Mill, who will take pleasure in showing the property. Terms made known on day of sale.

WARNING!

A SPLENDID PUMP FOR SALE.

HAVING PURCHASED THE EXCLUSIVE right for the states of North and South Carolina for the manufacture and sale of A. BALDING'S PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMP, I hereby forewarn, under the penalty of the law, any person from infringing upon my rights in the same. Intending to manufacture and sell the same, I would be pleased to confer with parties wanting them. The price will range from $30 to $50, according to the depth of the well for No. 3 yard wells, throwing 30 gallons of water per minute; and No. 2 for Railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons, price given on application. This pump has no friction, and the packing will last for fifteen years in a good well. Directions will accompany the pump for putting it up, which can be done in 30 minutes. I will receive orders at Tarboro, Scotland Neck, and Farmville, N. C. All orders addressed to me at either of the places named will receive prompt attention.

A Appeal for Air to the Sextant of the Old Brick Meetinouse.

BY A GASPER.

[The following appeal to a Sexton for pure air in the meeting house, should have a general circulation. The spelling is not very good, but the argument is irresistible. It is from the Detroit Tribune.]

O sextant of the meetinouse with forops
And dusts, or is supposed to; and makes fires,
And lites the gaff, and sumtimes leaves a scent
behin,
in with cafew smells orful—worse than lare pipe,
And wrings the Pet and tokes it when meh dyes
to the grief of furvivin pardoners, and sweeps nothin;
And for the forsaxes gits $100 per annum,
Wish them that thinks deer, let em try it;
Gettin up befour fierlite in all wethers and
Ki dilin fars when the wether is as cold
As zero, and like as not green wood tor kindlers;
i would'nt be hired to do it for no pense—
But o Sextant! there are i kernoddity
Wich's more than gold, wich dosnt cost nothin
Worth more than anything exsep the Sole of Mann!
i mean power Are, fustagh, i mean power Are!
O it is plenty out o doors, so plenty it dosnt no
What on airth to dew with itself, but flys about Scatterin leavs and blowin off men's hatts;
in short, its just "froc as are" out dorss
But o sextant, in our church its fearce as piety, scarse as tank bills when agitata beg for mischiefs
With tonse fay is purty often (taint nothin to me, Wat I give aint nothin to nobody) but o sextant,
u flies 500 men, wimmen and children,
Specially the litter, up in a bit place,
Some has bad breths, some aint I swole,
Some is fevery, fouls is forcibles, some has bad teeth,
And tome haint none, and some aint over clean;
But every i on em breathes in & out and out
and in,
Fay tex fifty a minit, or 1 million and a half breathes an our,
Now how long will a church full of are last at that rate,
I ask you, say 15 minits, and then what's to be did?
Why then they mutt breathe it all over agin.
And then agin, and so on, till each has took it down
At leatt 10 times, and let it up agin, and wats more,
The fame individible dont have the privildges
of brethen his own are, and no ones else;
Each one mutt take wativer comes to him.
O Sextant, doant you know our lungs is bellufses;
To bee the fier of life, and keep it from goin out; and how can bellufses blo without wind,
And aint wind are? i put it to your sonsheus.
Are is the fame to us as milk to babies,
Or water is to fish, or pendlums to clox—
Or roots and airbs unto an injun Doctor,
Or little pills unto an ongerutan,
Or boys to garls. Are is for us to brethe.
Wat sig: ifies who preechos if i cant brethe?
Wats Pot? Wate Pollos? fewishners who are ded?
Ded for want of breth? why sextant, when we dye
Its only cauth we cant brethe nomore—thats all.
And now, o sextant, let me beg of you
2 lets a little are into our church
(Pewer are is grim proper for the pews)
And do it wen days and Sundays too—
It aint muc trouble—only to bo a hole
And the are will cum in of itself;
(It luvs to cum in where it can get warm;)
And o how it will route the people up,
And sperm up the preacher, and frop garps,
And yauns and figettas as effectual
As wind on the dry Bones the Profit tells of.

Bullock, the bogus Governor of Georgia, over whose head hangs the sword of impeachment for gross corruption and schemes of jobbery, engineered the bill in relation to that State. If the old Legislature had been continued he would have gone to the wall, and hence his prostration at the feet of any man who could aid him in this emergency. Bullock is also a candidate for Senator from Georgia, another reason why the Legislature should be controlled by negroes and carpet baggers. No other set of men would be mean enough to elect Bullock. His brother aspirant for the other seat in the Senate, is one Blodgett, a man who raised the first company of Confederate troops in Georgia, and who is under indictment for perjury! These are the reptiles who would bestow the seats once occupied by Benton Wright, Dallas, Clay, Calhoun and Webster, and in order that such men may creep into power General Grant recommends the outrage upon Georgia, and his obsequious servants carry it into effect. Master and men are alike deserving of the scorn and contempt of all true friends of the nation. Philadelphia Age.

An important rumor was circulated in Washington day before yesterday to the effect that the Duke of Argyll is coming over as special ambassador, with a proposition to settle the Alabama claims by ceding British Columbia and the Winnipeg region to the United States. It seems, however, that we are expected to pay a good round sum for the territory in addition to relinquishing our claims for the depredations of the Alabama. How this will strike the American people it is not difficult to foretell. The British government holds the howling wilderness of the north at too high a figure to find a purchaser down here.

THE BLUE RIDGE RAILROAD.—The Stockholders of this Road have arranged to pay Criswell & Co., Contractors to build the Road, $75,000, and to settle with Mr. Steers, the sub contractor. Mr. Steer's claim is reported to be $20,000. All the suits instituted against the Stockholders for annulling the contract with Criswell & Co., have been withdrawn. It is supposed the work will not be stopped entirely, but the Company will continue it with the $4,000,000 of bonds which they now have.—Asheville News.

PROSPECTUS

"PRIMITIVE BAPTIST."

WE PROPOSE TO RENEW THE PUBLICation of the "PRIMITIVE BAPTIST" upon the following terms, commencing, if we shall receive sufficient encouragement, in the month of January, 1870:

The "Primitive Baptist" will be published semi-monthly on every Thursday before the second and fourth Sundays in each month, twenty-four numbers constituting a volume—for One Dollar and Fifty Cents in greenbacks, or One Dollar in gold payable in all cases, in advance.

All moneys sent to us, properly mailed, are at our risk.

Any person furnishing us a club of five subscribers shall be entitled to six copies, and for two or more clubs, the same rates.

Those belonging to the old Baptist Church who desire the Primitive, and feel unable to pay for it by informing us of the fact, shall have the paper sent to them gratis.

All Editors of newspapers in different States, who will give this Prospectus an insertion in their respective papers, will confer a favor upon us, and will receive our sincere thanks.

Persons who are willing to act as Agents for the paper, will please inform us.

We earnestly solicit contributions to the columns of the Primitive Baptist from the brethren and sisters who feel disposed to write.

To defend Gospel Truth, and the keeping separate Church and State in matters of religion, is our motto, but protest all.

The Primitive Baptist will be published in pamphlet form of 16 large pages of reading matter. We may reserve a few columns for a list of Agents, and for the insertion of interesting news, deaths and marriages.

Editors of religious papers are respectfully requested to publish this Prospectus as a favor.

Persons who wish to become subscribers, are requested to send their names without delay but are requested not to send the money until they receive the first number.

All letters must be addressed particularly to

LIFE INSURANCE.

THE LEADING COMPANY IN NORTH CAROLINA IS

THE ÆTNA LIFE,

OF HARTFORD.

JULY 1ST, 1869.

Amount of Assets $12,000,000.00.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $2,675,999.48,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

ALL THE SURPLUS OF THE COMPANY DIVIDED AMONG THE ASSURED.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED AND PAID ANNUALLY ON THE CONTRIBUTION PLAN.

ALL POLICIES (AFTER TWO FULL PAYMENTS) NON-FORFEITABLE, AND SO EXPRESSED ON EACH POLICY.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States.

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

IT ISSUES ALL THE VARIOUS FORMS OF LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

No.	15,273	$ 5,000

"	43,339	5,000
"	54,436	2,000
"	14,598	10,000
"	40,266	5,000
"	42,975	5,000
"	23,204	15,00

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,38
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 558 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 12 337 new policies; more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been maintained in 1869."
